

Little Chalfont Nature Park

A hidden gem in the Chilterns

June What you might see in the Flowers in park the park

Common Spotted Orchids, Pignut & Red Clover

The orchids can be pink or even white. The leaves have dark blotches.

There is an unusually high occurrence of pignut in the park.

Clover leaves have 3 lobes. It is lucky to spot a 4 leaved clover.

Insects and Butterflies

Red soldier Beetle

Yellow ants' nest.

Holly blue butterfly. Meadow brown

Birds you may see

Some nest in the park

Blue tit

Coal tit

Long-tailed tit

Trees in new leaf

Copper Beech

Elder in flower

Hornbeam

Deer

Roe Deer

Muntjac

Both types of deer regularly appear in the park.